NARRATIVE:

Reliford has an adult criminal history that began at the age of 18 years old. He has five (5) felony convictions consisting of possession of a firearm by an ex-felon, (3) vehicle theft and possession of marijuana for sale. He has served four (4) prior state prison terms, the longest term being six (6) years for possession of marijuana for sale. He was released most recently from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on December 14, 2011 after serving a term for possession of marijuana for sale. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in March 2012 after Reliford absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Reliford qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of marijuana for sale is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Reliford is a member of the Insane Crip Gang with a moniker of "Fat Daddy / Baby TD". His prior criminal history, gang affiliation and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. Additionally, Reliford is wanted by Los Angeles County
